

SURFACE

October 25, 2017

The Salon Art + Design

By Staff Writer

The acclaimed design fair embarks on its sixth edition with more than 50 international exhibitors that will present historic and contemporary fine and decorative arts. Read on for some of its program features.

“The New Nouveau”

Cofounder of the Design Miami Fair interior designer Amy Lau, makes her debut at The Salon with a curated living room that pays tribute to the legacy of art nouveau. The showcase, installed at her booth, features iconic pieces by designers such as David Wiseman, Michael Coffey, and Joseph Walsh.

Ceramics

As part of the fair’s dedication to decorative arts, this year’s collection of ceramics is an extensive one, ranging from Estelle Halper’s expressive midcentury creations to contemporary vessels by Bae Sejin, a 2017 Loewe Craft Prize finalist.

Maison Giampiero Bodino

At The Armory’s Library Room, the Italian jewelry brand presents an intimate exhibition of never-before-seen pieces inspired by Italy’s nature and heritage.

Desk by Mauro Reggiani (c.1960). Photo: courtesy of Nicholas Kilner.

November 9, 2017 - November 13, 2017

Park Avenue Armory, 643 Park Ave, New York, NY 10065

212-777-5218

<https://www.thesalonny.com>

<https://www.surfacemag.com/events/the-salon-art-design/>